Menteng, Central Jakarta

An exhibition of Romanian painters Victoria Dragomirescu and Sanda Butiu was recently presented by the Romanian embassy at Tugu Kunstkring Paleis.

Romanian ambassador Valerica Epure said the exhibition was held to mark 65 years of bilateral relations between Romania and Indonesia.

The Bucharest-born artists, both members of the Romanian Fine Arts Society and Romanian Plastic Arts Union, have had exhibitions across the globe.

Tugu Kunstkring Paleis is a 101-year-old building serving culinary and dining temptations, as well as presenting exhibitions, performing arts and cultural related events.
